CODE OF CONDUCT FOR (YMCA) CAMP YARRAMUNDI

26TH – 27TH OCTOBER, 2017

I will.....

- Never leave camp or activity areas without permission.
- Respect others after lights out. There would be no need to leave your dorm/cabin after lights out.
- Be responsible for the ongoing cleanliness of our rooms.
- Listen to and follow instructor's guidelines and instructions.
- Not tamper with Fire Fighting equipment. Damage will incur a minimum charge to the individual of $280.
- Wear closed in shoes and a hat at all times.
- Not enter out of bounds areas detailed upon arrival.
- Respect male and female areas. Enter no room other than my own.
- Drink water only from the identified tank & carry a water bottle filled before each activity.
- Respect the natural environment. Use the bins provided and not damage the bush.
- Not run around the campsite.
- Not bring pocket knives, glass, valuables etc.
- Report all accidents/damage to equipment. Wilful damage must be paid for by the individual/s involved
- Only swim when supervised by a teacher or instructor.
- Not bring lollies or gum etc.

BEHAVIOUR MANAGEMENT AND CAMP RULES

Students who break this code of conduct or demonstrate behaviour that could result in serious danger or distress to themselves or others may be excluded from some activities (or part thereof), have their parents contacted, or in extreme or repeat cases, will be sent home.
